Re: Windsor Log Home Restoration

In March 2006, the Marble Valley Historical Society, Inc. employed Earl S. Windsor III, owner of Windsor Log Home Restoration, to remove and replace the chinking from the Kirby - Quinton Cabin in downtown Jasper. The former native American cabin is over 200 years old and the use of Perma-Chink had been recommended by a State Historic Preservationist.

The work by Mr. Windsor and his crew was completed within the time span that he had specified. The craftsmanship was good both for removal of the earlier chinking and replacing it with the Perma-Chink system. When they ran out of supplies, Mr. Windsor had contacts with the Perma-Chink Corporation and we were able to get the needed supplies delivered in a matter of days. This enabled the restoration work to be completed on time and prior to the April 1 2006 "opening day" for the cabin.

We recommend that Mr. Windsor be continued for future log cabin restoration work. He was skilled, knowledgeable and did a good job for our Society.

Sincerely,

Mimi Jo Butler
